THE DREAM OF A LEGEND

Gridiron9 was originally conceived in 2009 by legendary NFL star and former Tennessee Titan, Steve McNair. From the beginning, McNair was actively involved in the management of Gridiron9 with a mission to give back to the community through the success of the business. Sadly, Gridiron9 closed with his untimely passing. But soon after, a new day would dawn...

A graduate of Tennessee State University, Alexis Springer, saw the opportunity to carry on Steve's vision for Gridiron9. She approached Steve's estate through a mutual friend with 2 goals in mind: Continue giving back to the North Nashville community while offering great food at reasonable prices.

Serving an array of mouth-watering delights, Gridiron9 is the place where you can come and enjoy great food and great people in a fun, relaxed atmosphere—just the way Steve would have wanted it.

We welcome you to Gridiron9 and look forward to being your favorite local eatery for many years to come.
